

Friday, June 26th, 2009

www.charlestongreen.us

www.charlestongreencommittee.com

The Green Connection

Next Green Committee Meeting

Tuesday, July 14th

8:00 am

Green Committee Meeting

75 Calhoun Street Third Floor Meeting Room

(CARTA Route 201 or 210)

LEED for Neighborhood Development: Sustainability Beyond Buildings

The BCDCOG (Berkeley-Charleston-Dorchester Council of Governments) will be hosting two upcoming webinars being presented by the U.S. Green Building Council. The first webinar, entitled “Strategies for Urban Infill and Brownfield Redevelopment”, will be held on July 16th, 2009, from 1:00 p.m.–2:30 p.m. The second webinar, entitled “A Tool to Retrofit the Suburbs”, will be held on August 6th, 2009 from 1:00 p.m.–2:30 p.m. Both sessions will be located at the BCDCOG offices. If you would like to attend, please contact Andrea Kozloski at (843)5290400 or andreak@bcdco.com. Space is very limited.

For more information on BCDCOG and the work they are doing, visit their websites here and here.

Green is Good for Business Conference

Tuesday, September 1

Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center, Columbia, SC

8:30 a.m.– 5:00 p.m. (Conference Sessions)

5:00 p.m.– 7:00 p.m. (Business After Hours)

This workshop brings everything you need to green your workplace under one roof. You can learn from industry experts, visit with vendors who provide green products and services, and network with other green businesses. In addition, you can get information on water efficiency, green transportation, energy conservation, green landscaping, recycling and waste reduction, green cleaning, environmental management systems and more. The workshop is $50, with discounts available if you arrive with three or more attendees.

Cycle Chic in Charleston!

“Cycle Chic” is the culture of cycling in fashionable clothes. It is very popular in cities where bicycling is a main mode of transportation, and now Charleston has it’s very own organization dedicated to promoting cycle chic and biking in general. This past Wednesday, Jun 24th, Cylce Chic held a downtown group bike ride. Here’s what their website had to say:

“While it was storming all around us, somehow the sun managed to shine down on the Charleston Peninsula and illuminate 50 beautiful women on their fabulous bikes (and a few stylin’ guys). We had hats and heels and skirts galore and even a couple of tandem bikes. Shiny pink fenders, white leather seats, and all the colors of the rainbow were out in force.”

Click the above hyperlink for more photos and information so you can get out their and cycle in STYLE!
